

Happy and Glorious: Coronation Commissions from the Government Art Collection.

This easy read is about 'Happy and Glorious', an exhibition of coronation commission, which includes Venture Arts artist, Leslie Thompson.

Artist featured- Leslie Thompson

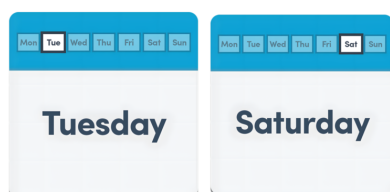

Venue:

The National Archives, Bessant
Dr, Richmond, London,
TW9 4DU.

Dates:

2nd May -
2nd November 2025.

Open:

Open Tuesday till Saturday.
Closed Sunday and Monday.

Cost:

It's free.

Leslie was commissioned to create artwork for the Coronation of King Charles III and this will be on show, along with work by 8 other British artists.

We hope that you can come to the exhibition!

Replace this text with your own information. Use simple and clear language. Make sure the text is easy to read and understand.

Replace this text with your own information. Use simple and clear language. Make sure the text is easy to read and understand.

Replace this text with your own information. Use simple and clear language. Make sure the text is easy to read and understand.

Replace this text with your own information. Use simple and clear language. Make sure the text is easy to read and understand.

